Our Mission

Harder Inc. believe that we succeed by enabling our clients to succeed. We strive to focus on the goals of the clients before our own. We assist our clients in understanding and executing their most beneficial automobile buying and leasing options; easily and economically. We accomplish this by providing high-quality tools and educational information for our clients, thus enabling them to succeed in the auto buying and leasing negotiation process. This is of utmost importance to us. We believe that financial decisions affect marriages and families in a profound manner. Decisions made now regarding spending, debt incurred and savings on the purchase/lease of your next automobile will have a long-term effect on your future. We are proud to be of service by providing self-help educational tools and well-priced services. We enable our clients to execute a wise purchase or lease decision with confidence. Our organization is totally committed to saving our clients MONEY, TIME, HASSLES & LIVES.

Our Mission

“I truly feel that serving the needs of others is the only legitimate business in the world today!!!!”
